1. Signal Market Overview

Signal Market is a marketplace within MT4/5 Agent where verified traders can offer their trading signals as subscription services, and subscribers can automatically copy those signals to their own accounts.

1.1 Key Features

- Browse verified signal providers with real performance statistics
- Subscribe with Monthly / Quarterly / Yearly plans
- PayPal and Crypto (USDT, USDC, BTC) payment support
- Copy Trading automatically configured on subscription
- Copy Trading auto-disabled on cancellation or expiry
- Signal providers earn 70% of subscription revenue
- Admin-verified badge for trusted providers

1.2 How It Works

Step 1	Signal provider registers their master account as a signal
Step 2	Admin reviews and grants Verified badge
Step 3	Subscriber browses the marketplace and selects a signal
Step 4	Subscriber selects their slave account and completes payment
Step 5	Copy Trading is automatically configured and activated
Step 6	When subscription expires or is cancelled, Copy Trading stops automatically

2. For Subscribers

Follow these steps to subscribe to a signal and start copying trades.

2.1 Finding a Signal

1. Log in to MT4/5 Agent dashboard
2. Click Trading menu in the top tab bar
3. Select Signal Market
4. The Search tab displays all active signal providers
5. Use the sort dropdown to filter by: Most Popular, Best PnL, Best Win Rate, Price

Tip: Check Win Rate, Total PnL, and Max Drawdown before subscribing. Verified badge means the signal has been reviewed by the admin.

2.2 Viewing Signal Details

Click View Detail on any signal card to see:

- Performance metrics: Total PnL, Win Rate, Trades, Max Drawdown
- Strategy description and trading style
- Subscription plan options (Monthly / Quarterly / Yearly)
- Subscriber reviews and ratings

2.3 Subscribing

6. Click View Detail on the signal you want
7. Select a subscription plan (Monthly / Quarterly / Yearly)
8. Select your slave account from the Your Account (Slave) dropdown
9. Click Subscribe Now
10. Select payment method: PayPal or Crypto
11. Complete the payment
12. Copy Trading is automatically configured after payment

Note: The slave account you select will receive all copied trades from the signal provider's master account.

2.4 Payment Methods

PayPal	Pay securely with your PayPal account. Redirected to PayPal and returned after completion.
USDT TRC20	Tron network USDT. Lowest fees recommended.
USDT ERC20	Ethereum network USDT.
USDC ERC20	Ethereum network USDC.
USDC Solana	Solana network USDC. Fast and low fee.
BTC	Bitcoin payment.

2.5 Managing Subscriptions

After subscribing, go to Signal Market > My Subscriptions to view:

- Active subscription status and expiry date
- Linked slave account name
- Subscription plan and amount

To cancel a subscription:

13. Click Detail on the subscription
14. Click Cancel Subscription
15. Copy Trading for that signal will be automatically disabled

Important: When a subscription expires or is cancelled, the Copy Trading setting is automatically set to Stopped. Existing open positions are NOT automatically closed.

2.6 After Subscribing — Adjusting Copy Settings

After subscription, you can fine-tune the Copy Trading settings:

16. Go to Trading > Copy Trading
17. Find the setting with the Signal badge
18. Click the Edit (pencil) button
19. Adjust: Lot Ratio, Auto Balance Ratio, Order Delay, Symbol Filter, etc.
20. Click Update Copy Setting

Note: The master account and slave account cannot be changed for signal subscriptions. Only trading parameters can be adjusted.

3. For Signal Providers

Register your master account as a signal to earn subscription revenue from subscribers.

3.1 Revenue Structure

Subscriber pays	$30 / month (example)
Platform fee	30% = $9
Provider receives	70% = $21
Payout method	PayPal, USDT (TRC20), Bank Transfer

Info: The platform fee percentage is set by the admin and may vary. You can view the current rate in your signal settings.

3.2 Registering a Signal

21. Go to Trading > Signal Market
22. Click My Signals tab
23. Click + Register button
24. Fill in the registration form:
  - Signal Name: Your signal's display name (e.g. Gold Hunter Pro)
  - Master Account: The MT4/5 account that will be copied
  - Description: Explain your trading strategy
  - Strategy: e.g. Scalping, Swing Trading, Grid
  - Monthly Price ($): Minimum $10
  - Quarterly / Yearly Price: Optional discounted plans
  - Payout Method: PayPal / USDT TRC20 / Bank Transfer
  - Payout Address: Your PayPal email or wallet address
25. Click Save
26. Your signal will appear as Inactive until admin approves it

3.3 Admin Verification

After registration, admin will review your signal and grant a Verified badge. Verified signals appear with a green checkmark in the marketplace, increasing subscriber trust.

Tip: Connect your real money account with at least 3 months of trading history to get verified faster.

3.4 Managing Your Signal

In My Signals you can:

- Edit: Update description, pricing, payout address
- Activate / Stop: Toggle your signal on or off in the marketplace
- View subscriber count and total earned revenue

3.5 Payout

Revenue settlement is processed monthly. Payout requests can be made once the minimum threshold ($10) is reached. Contact admin for payout processing.

4. FAQ

Q. Can I subscribe to multiple signals?

Yes. You can subscribe to multiple signals with different slave accounts. Each subscription creates a separate Copy Trading setting.

Q. What happens to open positions when I cancel?

Copy Trading is stopped automatically, but existing open positions on your slave account are NOT closed. You must close them manually.

Q. Can I change the slave account after subscribing?

No. The slave account is fixed at subscription time. To use a different account, cancel the current subscription and re-subscribe with the new account.

Q. What happens when my subscription expires?

The subscription status changes to Expired and Copy Trading is automatically disabled. You can renew by subscribing again.

Q. Can a signal provider subscribe to their own signal?

No. The master account and slave account must be different accounts.

Q. Is the signal provider's account balance visible to subscribers?

No. Only performance statistics (PnL, Win Rate, Trade count, Max Drawdown) are visible. Account balance and personal information are not disclosed.

Q. How is the Lot size calculated for copied trades?

By default, Lot Ratio x 1.0 is applied (same lot as master). You can change this in Copy Trading settings after subscribing. Use Auto Balance Ratio to automatically calculate based on account balance ratio.

Q. Which payment currencies are supported?

PayPal (USD), USDT TRC20, USDT ERC20, USDC ERC20, USDC Solana, BTC are supported.
